

OUR CURRICULUM

Our curriculum incorporates a variety of teaching techniques allowing all types of learners to absorb, understand, and thrive in our dynamic educational environment.

COURSES

Project Equip core curriculum is structured into eight courses, each consisting of eight modules. Supplemental learning materials are posted in each module and support what is taught in the lectures. Modules are released according to the Course Schedule and remain accessible throughout the entire course; however, you are required to complete tasks by certain dates, so it is best to stay on track with your studies.

MSL 410: Cultural Analysis	James Littles	This course explores a biblical perspective of how culture impacts the approach to North American church planting and other local church ministries. Understanding the diversity of cultures in a ministry context is paramount to successful church leadership and disciple making.
MSL 420: Discipleship II	Ken Dillingham	This course seeks to give practical steps for developing people from being disciples to being disciple makers. Building foundational families is key to establishing a healthy and stable church. This course will emphasize the importance of establishing foundational families and will teach the practical process necessary to bring these disciples to maturity.
MSL 430: Biblical Leadership II	Ron Wofford	This course helps you identify and develop the biblical qualities of leadership necessary to successfully engage in church planting in North America. While great leadership qualities are to be universally desired, the task of church planting requires the acquisition of a specific set of skills that will be outlined in this course. This course will focus on the latter stages of the church plant as it progresses to maturity.

MSL 440: Apostolic Teambuilding	Scott Sistrunk	This course equips the church planter with the understanding and principles necessary to assemble an Apostolic leadership team from “the ground up.” Great leadership teams may be assembled over generations in an established church. Additionally, leadership may be modeled in a multifaceted way in existing churches.
MSL 450: Capstone	Galen Thompson	This program capstone course is tailored to suit the missional endeavors of the student.
